The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

It is with a feeling of extreme lassitude and a frustrated sense of the futility of it all that we tackle this week's column. This worm-like mental and physical state has been induced by a combination of evil happenings that have befallen us, namely, the heat spell, a 1400 calorie daily diet, and a switch to a foul tasting, triple filtered, de-tarred, de-resined blob of something posing as an excuse for a cigaret.

We must be careful, however, that we don't invade the realm of vituperation which is reserved exclusively for the Editor and Publisher of the Review, besides, maybe the guy would like some cigaret advertising sometime.

—ML—

Speaking of advertising, did you ever stop to think how most of us drive around for years serving as mobile billboards for some clever automobile dealer?

Far from costing the dealer anything for those dealer-name plates attached to each car, we'll bet they're classed as another extra, and we pay for them.

We once tried to pry the danged insigne off, but found the thing practically riveted clean through the body. The next time we buy a car—but there we go again, getting in the Editor's huddle.

—ML—

Would you like to hear about our vacation? But then again as we've often told our loyal wife, "What's it matter where I've been, the important thing is that I'm home again to you, safe and sound."

—ML—

Anybody got a spare corner?

We must be the "goingest" town in the U. S. if gas stations are any indication, A smart intrepeneur might get the swamp gas concession—the stuff's plentiful in certain local areas and it's for free too.

—ML—

We recently read a list of ten safety precautions for the vacationing motorist. Some are pretty grim, but then a pleasant, orderly trip can change in one or two seconds into a real life nightmare of misery or horror.

We were most interested in two of the suggestions. "Let whoever drives work at the job 100%. No kids crawling over him, no distractions by sights suddenly pointed out, no maps to be glanced at."

And to remember first of all that your objective is not a particular destination, but to roll to a stop at home with car and riders safe and sound.

New School Board Approves 8 New Classrooms for San Miguel

The first official meeting of the five man Lemon Grove Elementary School Board molded itself into a smooth, fast working organization Monday night.

They plowed through a 14 item agenda which included the approval of the approximately $800,000 school budget which had been corrected by the County Superintendant's office. The corrected budget had an increase of $5,000 for the beginning balance. This will be used to reduce tax requirements . . . a reduction of about $1 per family.

The board also approved construction of 8 new classrooms for San Miguel School. These will be ready about January 30, 1955. Work will start next month.

A study of a proposed handbook for policies, procedures, rules and regulations of the school board is under way. Such a book, the board pointed out, would save the time now used digging through the minutes.

New board members, seated for the first time, were Bert Betts and Channing Mason. Frank Armstrong presided. Absent were members Harry Griffen and Robert Brown.

The Dimmer VIEW

by Max Goodwin

The request by the Lemon Grove Men's Club for a survey by the city of San Diego to determine to what level of physical perfection the community must bring itself to be considered suitable material for annexation seems to have opened a civic Pandora's Box.

Still smarting as a result of the by-play which gave part of Rolando the rights of annexation without sharing in the school system's bonded indebtedness, the Board of Education announced that it would protest the annexation of Lemon Grove unless an agreement could be arrived at by which a part of the city's school indebtedness could be shared. Lemon Grove is now taxed to its bonded capacity and how the city itends to propound this tax is a mystery to me, but my guess is that if there is a formula, by which this financial responsibility can be passed on, on top of the already huge school tax bur-

San Diego to Hand Down Annexation Survey Report Next Week

Orin K Cope, assistant to the city manager of San Diego, said this week that he expected the material for the report of a survey concerning annexation of Lemon Grove would be ready about July 22.

He said that much of the work had been done but that all material should be in his office and ready for evaluation approximately at that date. He indicated that if no complications arose the report would be ready for Lemon Grove petitioners within a few days of that date.

John Dale, chairman of the annexation study for the Lemon Grove Men's Club, presented a map supplied by the city showing the approximate boundaries of the area to be annexed. Dale said that a list of eleven questions had been submitted to Mr. Cope for consideration in the survey. Some of the questions follow:

What effect would proposed street improvement, sewer and

L. G. Postal Receipts to Hit $100 Thousand

Lemon Grove postal receipts are up 23.2% it was announced this week by Frenchy Faucher, local postmaster.

Recepits for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1954 totaled $92,682.63. Receipts for the 1953 fiscal year totaled $75,305.79. The increase in dollars was $17,376.84.

"We are anticipating receipts of more than $100,000 for the coming year," Postmaster Faucher stated.

Get Champagne, And Like it, At Michael's Anniversary Ball

Champaign will flow like rainwater down the San Diego River in a rainstorm when Henry Goldy, president of Michael's, Inc. tosses a public party Wednesday, July 28, marking his second anniversary in Lemon Grove.

In addition to champaign "on the house," orchids, to be flown directly from Hawaii expressly for the anniversary event, will be pinned on the bosom of the lady guests. To wrap up the evening in gala style, the floor will be cleared for dancing to a popular San Diego dance orchestra.

A further expansion, the tripling of the floor space of the main dining room, will be held in conjunction with the anniversary

Pool Group Incorporates and Names Officers

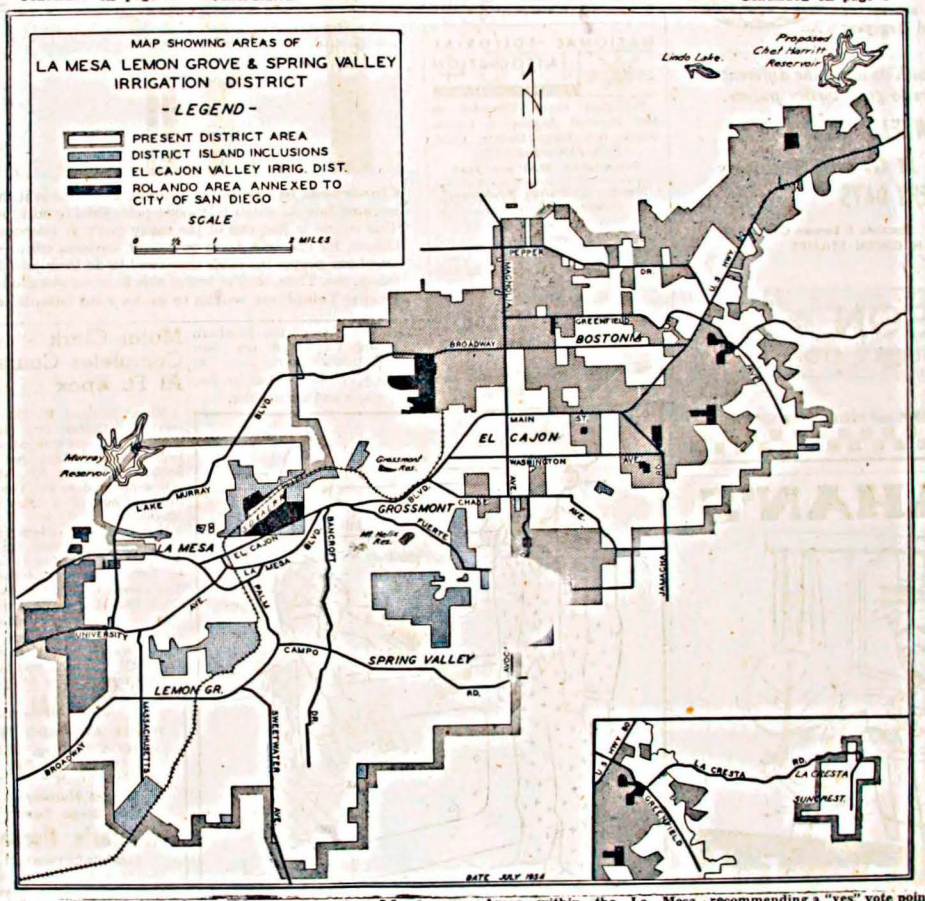

Articles of incorporation and by-laws were approved last week setting in motion a permanent organization for a Lemon Grove swimming pool.

The name decided upon is Lemon Grove Community Swimming Pool Association, and it was agreed that a board-of-directors-seat would be established for every group and organization taking part in the project.

Executive officers were elected, and in every case the vote was unanimous.

Named to these offices were: Emmett Marshall, president; Arva Piepenbrink, vice-president; Jack Durham, secretary and Lloyd Somerville, treasurer. V. J. Dorman, attorney, was named to the board to handle the legal

Liquor Sales to Minors Arouse Local Leaders

The sheriff's department this week stated that a crack-down on liquor law violators was in progress following the apprehension of five local teen-agers, either found intoxicated, or in the act of purchasing intoxicants in separate offenses. Arresting officer in all cases was Sheriff Sergeant Willard Rigley and prowl car officers assigned to the Homeland Judicial Court district.

"We are now definitely going after the seller," Sergeant Rigley stated. "Dealers know the law and warnings have been issued as far back as the first of the year on this specific subject."

First to be charged for sale to minors locally was Kathryn Britt of the Brookside Liquor Store on Imperial Ave. She was charged with selling wine to a 17 year old boy.

"We staked-out across the street from the Brookside store and this youngster, together with several others, drove up in a station wagon. The 17 year old boy entered the liquor store and emerged a few winutes later with a package. The boy rushed back into the store when we approached. We apprehended him in the store.In the package he had a bottle of Sauterne wine. This store had been warned on sale to minors recently," was the report given by Rigley.

Teen-age Drinking Charged

The sheriff's office was alerted on teen-age drinking orgies at the site of the Old Mission Church in Mission Valley. The complaint was relayed through Judge Dean Sherry. Sheriff Rigley said that a four hour stake-out was operated on the night of the complaint but no such parties developed.

"There was plenty of evidence that such parties had been held there recently," Rigley said. "There is no question in my mind that it is too easy for children to obtain intoxicants from retail outlets."

Several youths, all local, in varying degrees of intoxication were picked up in an auto near La Pressa airport. One boy was ill from overindulgence. Ages were 16, 17 and two were 18.

The blotter at the local judicial court shows a heavy influx of juvenile drinking charges. There had been practically no records until this year.

"We are being plagued with more of all types of misdemeanors," Judge Luther Hussey stated. "The case load has increased noticeably since the first of the year. It is unfortunate that this community doesn't possess the power to say how many, and what types of liquor establishments may be operated within its confines. Local deputies are doing a commendable job but 17,000 people need more police protection than we now have."

Highway Patrol Complains

State Highway Patrolman William Howell who has the Lemon Grove area as part of his run said that drinking minors who drive pose one of the greatest menaces to life and property on the highways today. "Adults are conditioned to responsibility," Howell said. "Minors have a built-in jet-propelled desire for speed-thrills. Take away what judgement they posess with intoxicants and put them behind the wheel of an auto and they're holy terrors."

Charles Cameron Jr., Supervisor of Liquor Control Officer for the Board of Equalization said that of all infractions, the department was more sensitive to minor sales than any other. "Liquor licenses are not granted for the purpose of making it possible for children to obtain liquor. This department will deal promptly with violators. We simply are not going to have sales to minors," he said emphatically.

Pastor Blames Local Laws

Reverend Morris Mulkey, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lemon Grove said, "Selling intoxicants to children is the handiwork of the devil. I have long advocated a firmer control over the right of a community to say how many, if any, places that sell liquor should be permitted in our community. As laws now stand, this number could increase one hundredfold and not one thing other than prayer, could be done to prevent it."

Most all clubs and organizations in Lemon Grove recently became part of a non-profit community association for building a swimming pool for Lemon Grove's youth.

"The pool would channel off a lot of the energy of the teen-ager who now finds himself in drinking parties," said Emmett Marshall, president of the Swimming Pool Association. "I think these drinking cases do more than anything to point up the fact that pool facilities are badly needed right now."

Irrigation District Electors to Vote On Giving Water to El Cajon

Taxpayers in Lemon Grove stand to gain an important dollars and cents savings from approval of the annexation of the El Cajon Valley Irrigation District to the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation district at the special election next Tuesday, according to a statement issued this week by the Citizen's Advisory committee for the Irrigation district.

Regardless of the eventual outcome of the discussion regarding incorporation as a city or joining the city of San Diego, taxpayers and water consumers in Lemon Grove will benefit by reduction of their individual share of the obligations of the Irrigation District after the El Cajon annexation is accomplished, C. Ray Grable, chairman of the Citizens' committee said.

Majority "yes" vote on the annexation proposal next Tuesday means consolidation of the lands within the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Service area into one irrigation district with higher assessed valuation and Areas within the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation District which will be affected by the Annexation Election vote next Tuesday are shown on above map. The extent to which the "island inclusions" and the lands of the El Cajon Valley Irrigation District are interwoven with those of the present La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation District can be seen. The Citizens' committee recommending a "yes" vote points out that consolidation of the district and the increase in valuation which will result will mean better and more economical water service and a spreading of existing obligations of the district over a larger area. This action will reduce the amount of debt carried by each acre in the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation District, the committee says.

Mrs. Bierworth Takes Over Florist Shop

The Lemon Grove Florist, 7844 Broadway, has been taken over by Mrs. Val Bierworth, 8282 Palm.

Mrs. Ed Lewis, the shop's owner, is home recuperating from a major operation. Mrs. Bierworth is a well known church worker of St. Phillip's Episcopal Church. She has also been active in the real estate and building business.

WHO'S CONFUSED?

The Review staff has been busy as beavers all week explaining to callers that the Tuesday Irrigation election has nothing to do with Lemon Grove annexing to San Diego, an issue that is prominently being considered at present.

The Irrigation District proposal to annex El Cajon to the present District leaves everything unsaid on the ballot. Without any explanation as to what the issue is, the ballots read "ANNEXATION" "YES" - "NO".

This election will probably go down in local history as the most confusing of them all and if it fails blame can be laid to the persons who contrived the ballots.

CHANGING WORLD

Ice cream vending machines turned up in Connecticut recently which not only sold ice cream, but asked if you enjoyed it, and made change.

She Went That-a-Way!

It was a good merchandising scheme but something went wrong. Haberdasher Roy Lane and Shoeman Ray Purtee acquired a war surplus balloon about 20 feet in diameter, painted the proper sale signs on it, loaded it with helium gas, $20 worth, and tethered it to the top of the Lane's stores to publicize their July clearance sale . . . then something went wrong!

The two businessmen are offering a $20 reward for the return of the balloon in good condition. Purtee is pointing in the direction the balloon was last seen traveling.

Grove Theatre to Reopen With Stage Shows Plus Films

Operators of the Grove Theatre this week announced that "live" musical comedies would be held in connection with screen shows at least three nights a week when it re-opens July 24.

Langford and Long, building contractors, who recently took over the theatre after Morgan Ames ran into a Federal Tax mess from which he failed to emerge solvent, said that they had initialed an agreement with The Masquers Club of San Diego who would offer a musical comedy each week.

The theatre is scheduled to open with a newly produced film, the title of which is yet to be ascertained. The stage show will be "Poor Papa" and the actors will be professional. In addition to the comedy, a chorus line will be featured.

Producers of the stage part of the entertainment are Don Carl, who is listed as director of the Masquers, and Alexander Trelease, business manager.

Other musicals scheduled for early presentation are "The Vampire," "Scrambled Husbands" and "School Days." The Huttons, a musical combination, will furnish the musical background.

Nominal admission prices are planned by the Langford and Long firm. At present the contemplated admission charge is about 80c.

In addition to the regular stage shows, amateur shows will be presented. Winners of these events will not only win prizes but will have a chance to appear in the regular stage presentations.

The Dixon LINE

By Friend Dixon

An officer of the Admiral Corporation, prominent radio and TV set manufacturers, says that the average American life has been prolonged four years during the ten years that TV became a nationwide medium of entertainment. Insurance company statistics show a decline in the home accident rates which he attributes to the fact that sitting down and watching TV saves people from hurting themselves in other household activities. We have always thought that watching TV was neither a mental or physical hazard outside of bending the elbow occasionally during particularly boring presentations, especially the commercials. So we go on record that we have no bursitis in either of our elbows.

Now that the "Over My Shoulder" column of Tony Sonka is getting somewhere in the line of our vision it gets to be more enjoyable, with reservations. We agree with him on the prevailing prices in 1940—on coffee, potatoes and other essentials, but when he quotes Red Spot Beer at four cans for twenty-five cents, we never got it. But we did get fuel oak, poultry feed, leather jackets, sheets, and even nylon stockings from the old Sonka Store. Yes, and sometimes we could get butter and one time we ordered a sack of onions that turned out to be a case of canned fruit.

One of Bennett Cerf's little jokes: "A cocker spaniel from out of town with a city companion paused at what he thought was a hitching post. It turned out to be a parking meter. He barked disgustedly and asked, 'Do you mean to say you've got to pay now?'"

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

We have wrapped up another Exposition and County Fair here at Del Mar. Thanks to you and your staff, we are able to say it was the most successful event since 1948.

Without your splendid cooperation we easily could have followed the national trend of decreased attendance at public events. Thanks again for all the help.

Sincerly,

Recently, in a Massachusetts department store, Bozo became aware that an 8-year-old urchin was shouting at his elbow, "Gimme a balloon! Gimme a balloon!" Since some 900 children were milling around in cramped quarters, Bozo was slightly delayed in filling the demand. He acted quickly, however, when the youngster kicked him solidly on the shins and yelled, "Gimme a balloon, you G____ D___ clown." Bozo gave him the balloon.

Your Friends and Neighbors tell the MAYFAIR Story

Every Mayfair employee is thoroughly sold on Mayfair - and this is as it should be! Our present objective is to make every customer a neighborhood sales-person.

This, we think, will be easy, as the adjacent pictures attest. We simply give Mayfair shopper the best quality, biggest variety, most service and lowest prices - - - -then invite them back again and aagain.

"I think these new lower prices are worth traveling a great distance for," is the opinion of Mrs. C. E. Cofreland, who lives at 10481 Del Rio Road in Spring Valley.

"There's no market that offers savings like Mayfair," she stated. "We have a son, Don, who is 23 and he is healthy and likes to eat good food. We get the good food and we get it cheap at Mayfair," she added.

Mr. Cofreland is associated with Copeland's Radio and TV Service.

A spanking-new department at Mayfair is the package liquor department. Martin "Pat" Bryant, the department manager, has acquired all the popular potables plus some exotic ones that will please the palate of the most discriminating reveler, he said.

"We make it possible for home-makers to do all their shopping under one roof," he said. "We have the fixings for an evening of relaxation plus all the niceties for a big party," he pointed out.

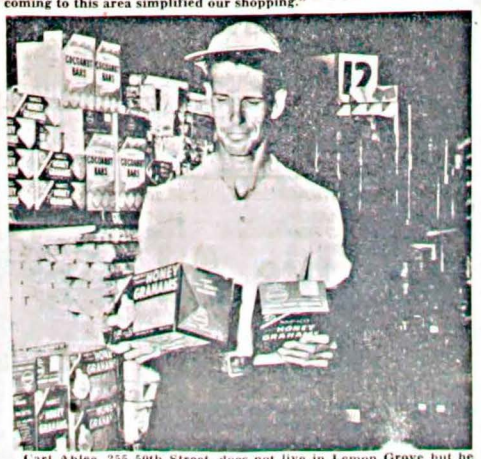

Until Mayfar acquired the market, package goods were not available at the market.

Lee Beth Guy is a secretary at the B & H Tool Company who lives at 7805 Nichols Street in Monterey Heights. Her husband, Arthur, is a lieutenant in the Navy.

"Prices are so much lower since Mayfair took over the market that it's worth coming again and again for the savings, Mrs. Guy said.

An attractive brunette, she is an active and sincere housewife. "Prices are important to service personnel," she stated. "Mayfair's coming to this area simplified our shopping."

Carl Ahlee, 255 50th Street, does not live in Lemon Grove but he makes a regular trip from San Diego to do his shopping at Mayfair. "With me, its parking," Carl said. "I'll be loyal to Mayfair as long as they keep that big easy-to-get-to parking lot set up the way it is. I started out with Mayfair because of the low prices but they spoiled me with the parking lot. I'd stick with them even if their prices were as high as other markets."

Doris Schafer is the mother of two children, Connie, 3 months, and Ronnie, 3 years. She and her husband Art, who is a lumber salesman in Casa D'Oro, live at 3408 Glen Drive in Spring Valley.

"I like the new low prices at Mayfair," she said. "I figure that I save over a dollar a week since the changeover. That doesn't seem like much on a week by week basis but it will pay my Christmas savings account at the bank," she pointed out.

Men's Club Holds Up Chamber Help Pending Annexation Decision

The Lemon Grove Men's Club last week heard a report on a paid manager for the Chamber of Commerce.

George Casteel, club's chairman, had assigned a committee more than a month ago to study the advisability of paid employees for the chamber.

Bert Betts, who revealed the study, said that the material was ready for reporting for the past three weeks but that his committee had not been called upon because of the fullness of the program.

The committee reported that the business people interviewed for the report felt that no action should be taken on a paid employee until the consideration of annexation or incorporation for Lemon Grove is decided upon. The Men's Club had offered to underwrite part of the cost of a paid manager for the chamber several months ago. The report also urged that all persons continue to support the chamber to the fullest extent during the period where the direction of the future of Lemon Grove was in balance.

Meanwhile Zelda Vernier, chamber president, had invited a Barstow, California couple to Lemon Grove for an interview concerning the chamber job. The couple are executives of the Barstow Chamber of Commerce at present.

The couple was asked by Mrs. Vernier to revisit Lemon Grove and attend a meeting of the Men's Club against the time that their support would be forthcoming again.

Annexation Study Due

auditorium bonds have on the present tax rate; what services would Lemon Grove receive without cost; to what extent would police service be extended; whether a branch of our city administrative offices be located here or not; would Lemon Grove be in the fifth councilmanic district or could we form another district; how would annexation effect the Lemon Grove fire protection district; would San Diego assume the outstanding bonds; would a municipal court be established or would the justice court remain; what would happen to the Sheriff's branch office now located here; would the area remain with the present irrigation district, and if not would the city assume our pro-rata share of the water district bonds; how would it effect our participation in the Grossmont Hospital District; what effect would it have on our sanitation district and would we still be required to pay the city for treatment of the effluent and finally what about the elementary and high school districts with its bonded indebtedness which is now a lien against Lemon Grove property owners. Would the city assume that indebtedness in that Lemon Grove would be asked to share the city's bonded indebtedness.

Dale said the answers to these questions are important in assisting the members of the club to arrive at a decision as to the future of the community.

The map which he exhibited at the Friday meeting of the Men's Club showed that no area was being considered outside the downhill drainage towards San Diego. The boundary would cut off everything from approximately Kempf St., east.

The group also heard representatives of the county road department and of the county administrative officers department discuss tax matters concerning roads and administrative costs.

In the absence of George Casteel, who is vacationing, and Harry Griffen, who was to have replaced Casteel but was called out of town, Max Goodwin presided.

den, the city will unveil it.

Also, a committee of the Men's Club was assigned the study of the local chamber of commerce, and the possibility of underwriting a paid secretary-manager. This study was reported at the last meeting, and with annexation looming large in the near future, the committee recommended against a paid employee. This, in effect, relegates the chamber to an impotent position because it connotes the withdrawal of support by the business men who make up the Mens' Club until the problem of annexation is resolved.

At the same time of this report, another was given on the city's view of the boundaries of the area to be annexed. Their interest, said the committee chairman who gave the report, was only in that section of Lemon Grove which drains toward San Diego. That would cut off part of the business district, the Catholic Church and the area in and around Brookside. This, in itself, is a good reason to prefer incorporation to an alternative of a split-down-the-middle community.

While no champions have yet arisen for incorporation, I feel that there must be some thoughtful citizens who view the annexation proposal dimly. If, for no other reason, than a casual study of the State Controller's report on "in lieu" taxes which would give an incorporated Lemon Grove $70,000.00 this year as a result of collections from the motor vehicle license tax. This is the amount Coronado, with a population similar to ours, will receive. In addition, Coronado will receive $106,160.70 from state gasoline taxes, fines, forfeitures and the like. This amounts to about $14,000.00 a month from motorists which is already being collected by the state. Whether we get this amount as an annexed area or an unincorporated locality is not in the hands of the local residents. As an incorporated city there would be no question. We'd get $14,000.000 a month, month in and month out, from these two sources alone.

Civil Defense

By CHARLES GURLEY

The first showing of 'Operation Ivy' in Lemon Grove took place at the Youth Center last Tuesday evening and while there were some unfilled seats most of those who saw the picture were of the opinion it was well worth seeing, and so we hope that local service clubs will follow up with requests to have it shown before their clubs at any open time their programs will allow.

"We will be pleased to have any requests," said Dr. Frank B. Gigliotti, "and we will be pleased to furnish an operator, so if you will just phone HO 6 5809 we will be glad to accommodate on a first call first served basis."

While we did not get the names of all who attended, we did get the following: Mrs. Frank B. Gigliotti, Mrs. C. W. Brown, Mrs. R. B. Hayhurst, Mrs. Betty Seymour Robinson, Mrs. Edna Snyder.

Skyline Wesleyan Methodist Church Opening Attracts 350

The new Skyline Wesleyan Methodist Church located on the corner of Skyline and Jamacha in Lemon Grove opened its doors for a series of first services this last week end. On Friday, Open House service was held with 350 in attendance. Greetings were offered by Mr. W. L. Hammersly, Principal of Audubon Elementary School in Lomita Village, Major Rody of the San Diego Salvation Army Citadel, Mrs. H. Irving Vernier, president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce and Rev. T. Y. Miller, president of the California Wesleyan Methodist Church of America.

Sunday morning was the opening of the Sunday School with a Sunday School Rally at which time the Acting Superintendent, Mr. Hoover Edwards of Lomita Village, and his teaching staff were presented. There were 175 adults and children present. At 11:00 o'clock during the Worship Service at which there were also 175 present, the pastor, Rev. Orval C. HIGH SCHOOLS TO GET GEOGRAPHIC NAMES SAYS SCHOOL BOARD

The new 2 million dollar high school under construction in El Cajon by O. L. Carpenter was named tentatively El Cajon Valley High School by the school board at its regular meeting Monday night. The board reaffirmed its policy of naming schools for geographical features. The new school will accommodate 1800 students.

Lewis Smith, Grossmont District Superintendent, protested the open drainage ditch in front of Helix High School. "It is unsightly and detrimental," Smith pointed out. The board concurred.

STANDINGS IN MIDGET BASEBALL LEAGUE LISTED

Jack Garner, director of Lyle field in La Mesa, announced the results of the first round of Midget (12-14) League play.

Lemon Grove Sampsons Tom Welbaum	3	2
La Mesa Transfers Gail Stuckey	3	2

This year's league is stronger than last and promises to be one of the best in the county. All games are played at Lyle field. This year each team is fully equipped due to the generous support of the merchants and businessmen in the La Mesa and Lemon Grove area. Twenty-seven Lemon Grove merchants have given financial support this year. Based on percentage, this should be some sort of a record. The boys are all from La Mesa and Lemon Grove Junior High. No boy may participate who is 15 years old this year. All players are protected by a group insurance plan which covers travel to and from practice or games as well as on the field.

The league has applied for a franchise in the National Pony League which will permit regional playoffs similar to the Littie League and next season will see the result of this. Daily practices are held at Helix High and Lyle Field under the supervision of the La Mesa Recreation Dept.

The following men have given a lot of time and planning to the success of the league:

Bif Gardner, County Recreation Director.

Tom Lean, La Mesa Recreation Director.

Lew Smith, Chairman, La Mesa Recreation Board.

DURHAMS ARE VISITED BY OLD-TIME FRIENDS

"It was the first time we've been together in eighteen years," reported Ira (Bull) Durham, one of the spokes in Lemon Grove's financial wheel. He was reporting the visit of old friends, Otto and Olive Bratz, of Centerville, Iowa who were guests of Ira and Julia Durham over the week-end.

"Otto had a business in the same square with me back in Iowa. He operated a commercial photography business. The main square was like most of them in small midwest towns . . . one square with business on all four streets, and that was the business section. I had an electrical appliance business around the corner from Bratz. We used to play bridge and go fishing together," Ira recalled.

The visit made 18 years seem a short time, the wives agreed. The Durhams have been here 21 years but they went back for a visit 18 years ago.

DISC JOCKEYS TO PRESENT JAZZ PROGRAM

Don Howard of KSDO and Gene Norman of KLAC will present a jazz concert July 19 starting at 8:30 p.m. The site for the cool music notes will be the coliseum at 15th & E in downtown San Diego. The concert features "The Cords," "Four Tunes," and the Jake Porter combo.

At present "The Chords" have the second top tune in the nation along with the top tune in the rhythem & blues department, that being "Sh-Boom." The "Four Tunes" have such outstanding records as "I Understand," "Marie," and "Sugar Lump." The Jake Porter combo have a few wild recordings on wax that rate high with the youth of Southern California, too.

So for one of the best nights you've ever had in the field of musical entertainment in a long time, pick up on this jazz concert the 19th.

THANKS, SAY NEW STORE OWNERS

"Thanks" is the word handed down by Larry and Phyllis Spica, operators of the newly opened Town House Furniture, 7904 Broadway, following a successful Friday and Saturday opening event.

"Two things were proved to us by the opening," the Spicas chorused, "one is that people want low priced quality furniture and the other is that people of Lemon Grove certainly read the Review.

The opening event will continue throughout this week, they said, and prize winners will be announced as soon as the drawing is made.

Public Information Chairman
HO 6-3745

The regular July meeting of the Lemon Grove branch of the Red Cross was held last Tuesday morning in the Woman's Clubhouse, according to a report made by Mrs. G. R. Roberts, chairman of this group.

The regular business reports were made by the officers and special reports were made by Mrs. Edgar Hervey and Mrs. Malcolmn Blevins of the San Diego branch. Mrs. Blevins urged a special appeal for used playing cards, but warned that each deck donated should be sure to contain the full 52 cards. She also urged the gift of your old mystery books, the 25 cent variety which you have finished reading and for which you have no further use. The Red Cross has a terrific demand for these from the men in the service and in hospitals.

The next meeting will be on August 9 and as Mrs. Roberts will be out of the city it will be handled by Vice Chairman Mrs. Walter H. Eager. The following were present: Mrs. G. R. Roberts, Mrs. Charles F. Taylor, Mrs. Walter Eager, Mrs. H. H. Henderson, Mrs. Malcolmb Blevins, Mrs. Edgar Hervey, Mrs. A. J. Huebsch, Mrs. Burton Norris, Mrs. A. C. Rice, Miss Marie M. Massey, Mrs. L. D. Newton and Mrs. J. A. Garber.

Mrs. H. H. Henderson was appointed chairman of our Motor Corps and a station wagon will be assigned in her charge at an early date.

"Highland Lads And Lassies"

By BOB TURNBULL

Smile . . . "Things are so high these days. I hear that even the price of down has gone up."

—o—

Contest-Time . . . This is the result of my recent contest. The general feeling among the entries was to keep the name "Highland Lads and Lassies." And until I have enough requests to change the name we'll leave it as is. I want to thank everybody who wrote me their letters.

—o—

Congratulations . . . are in order to Miss Lora Lee Lemmon who recently became engaged to Guy Mathes Crusselle, Jr. The bride-elect is a graduate of Helix High; they are planning a fall wedding.

—o—

Oceanside Queen . . . Helix can be real proud of Miss Marilyn Hawkins. Marilyn won over 31 candidates as queen of the Southern California Beauty Review and Beach Celebration at Oceanside. It was a five-day event that ended with fireworks.

—o—

Leathercrafty Loraine . . . Helix High School's youngest girl student last year, Loraine Lukas, 13, 4125 Donna Ave., Rolando Park, may lose that distinction this fall. But, because she won a first prize at Southern California Exposition and San Diego County Fair at Del Mar last week, her "claim to fame" has been renewed. Loraine's hand-tooled leather handbag, with shoulder strap, won top award among leathercraft entries in the under 18 division.

Football Facelifting . . . Helix High footballers can expect many changes in the Highland gridiron setup for next fall. Not only have the Highlanders changed leagues (from City to Metro), but they will also change quarters. Aztec Bowl, formerly the site of Helix home games, will no longer be utilized by the Maynardmen, due to failure of the lighting facilities. Therefore, additional grandstands, a scoreboard, a public address system and arc lights will be installed on the Helix layout during the summer, and the Green Wave will hold home games here.

The 1954 Metro league football race at the moment shapes up to be a three-team struggle between Chula Vista, Helix and Sweetwater. The Chula Vista Spartans, small school champions of the SCIF in '53, will be favored, with the Highlanders and Red Devils pushing hard. Grossmont and Mar Vista should be improved over 1953 and will be potential threats.

The 1954 Helix Gridiron Schedule: Wed., Sept. 22—Metro Carnival, Balboa Stadium. Fri., Sept. 24—Open. Fri., Oct. 1—Kearny at Helix. Fri., Oct. 8—Lincoln at Helix. Fri., Oct. 15—Point Loma (place not decided). Fri., Oct. 22—Chula Vista, there. Fri., Oct. 29—Mar Vista, there. Fri., Nov. 5 — Sweetwater at Helix. Sat., Nov. 13—St. Augustine at Helix. Fri., Nov. 19—Grossmont at Helix.

Prexys . . . I think it's time to give a small token of appreciation to all the presidents of various clubs at Helix High. Last year's prexys worked hard and accomplished many goals. Listed are the names of the prexys and their clubs. Good luck guys 'n gals. Grace Kellock, Inter-Club Council; George Mitrovich, Bible Club; Carol Harvey, Frosh-Soph Y--Teens; Flo Lagle, Sr. Y-Teens; Brahna Lauger, Tri-Ettes; Jim Goodwin, La Camarata; Bill Johnson, Chess Club; Judy Hoffert, Jr. Y-Teens; Buddy Davis, La Mesa Hi-Y; Neal Curtis, Rolando Hi-Y; Dick Dedrick, Lemon Grove Hi-Y; Sandy Whaley, Highland Horizon Club; Richard Garren, Torch and Saber; Sherry Hoss, Dardenelles Tri-Hi-Y; Dixie Graham, Min-Tidiers; Larry Williams, Vista La Mesa Hi-Y; Beryle Scott, High-Lighters. (The rest will be concluded in next week's column.)

Del Mar Race Feature to Offer 81 Fillies

DEL MAR, Calif.—With 81 2-year-old fillies still eligible, the fourth running of the Del Mar Debutante here the first Saturday in September is shaping up as one of the real classics of the 1954 racing season starting July 27.

Managing Director Walter C. Marty announced this week that of the 81 juveniles kept eligible by the owners, three already have etched their names among the ranks of stakes winners. These are Mrs. Edward Lasker's unbeaten Ahriman, the Lincoln Stable's Foster Sister and the Black Gold Stable's Jovie K. The latter stable will be bidding for a double in the Debutante, having sent out Lady Cover Up last year to be crowned the winner after it was ascertained that Frosty Dawn was ineligible.

The current list of 81 eligibles marks a new high in the number of fillies prepping for the Debutante, with the result that this year's running will be the richest in the brief history of the stakes. Estimates place the probable purse at approximately $35,000, which makes it the premier event for 2-year-old fillies in the West.

Lutherans Building Sunday School Wing

To help serve the needs of the rapidly growing community, Lemon Grove Lutheran Church, corner of Skyline and Alton Dr., is adding a new Sunday School wing. Work on the 74 foot by 24 foot Sunday School wing has begun. The wing is to be a two story building containing 15 Sunday School rooms and assembly rooms. At the present only the first story is being built, the second story to be built at a later date. The section now under construction will contain seven rooms.

Lemon Grove Lutheran, organized and served by Rev. W. LeRoy Elster, dedicated the present church unit three and one half years ago. At that time it was thought the Church would be large enough for at least six years, being constructed to seat 400 people, and to care for 150 Sunday School pupils. The growth of the area served by Lemon Grove Lutheran has been so rapid that Pastor Elster conducts two services every Sunday. Sunday School attendance has gone beyond the 250 mark, making it necessary to use the Pastor's garage, kitchen and living room as classrooms.

Mr. Virgil Duea is prsident of the congregation. Mr. Jim Paul holds the position of Building Coordinator, with Mr. Palmer Svalstad, Mr. O. E. July and Mr. Laurence Moe as building advisors. All work is being done by volunteer labor under the supervision of the Building Coordinator and advisors.

Pastor Elster reports that the work of gathering and organizing a congregation was started only five years ago this coming October.

Speed Ticket Possible While Moving at Legal Speed Says Patrolman Howell

Speeding accounts for almost one-half of all violations committed in fatal collisions. Speed violations include exceeding posted speed limits and violations of the basic speed laws as well. The basic speed law is probably the least understood section of the California Vehicle Code, according to Captain H. W. Clodfelter, commanding officer of the San Diego California Highway Patrol area.

The basic speed law provides: "No person shall drive a vehicle upon a highway at a speed greater than is reasonable and prudent, having due regard for the traffic on, and the surface and width of, the highway, and in no event at a speed which endangers the safety of persons or property," according to State Highway Patrolman Bill Howell, who is assigned to traffic safety in Lemon Grove.

"A motorist can be charged with speeding although he is driving within the posted speed limits. You must never drive at a speed faster than road, traffic and weather conditions permit," Captain Clodfelter explained.

RALPH BANGSBERG, Shasta National Forest fire-control officer—"Women for the most part make better fire lookouts than men do. They adjust to loneliness and stay on the job better."

San Diego to Have Exhibits at State Fair

SACRAMENTO — A colorful panorama of the things which make California great, represented by the best products and attractions of some 40 counties, will be displayed in the Counties Building at the California State Fair, which observes its 100th anniversary Sept. 2 through 12.

Hundreds of dazzling agricultural, industrial and recreational items will carry out the fair's 1954 theme "Pacific Panorama."

Among the counties which will compete for $64,141 in premiums and trophies will be Glenn and Lake, which did not enter last year. The rest of the counties span the state from Siskiyou and Humboldt on the north to San Diego on the south.

Designed especially for the beauty-loving and the practical-minded homemaker, this "silent hostess" coffee table is an asset to any home or apartment.

Simplicity of line is contrasted with a dramatic use of wood and wood-grained formica surfaces.

As a labor-saving piece, the sliding top panels reveal two compartments; one holds the beverage service and the other is lined with cork for storing additional refreshments. Space-saving, this coffee table also plays "mother hen" to four sturdy tables which can be used for seating or serving. No need for coasters on these, either. They're formica topped.

DOES YOUR REFRIGERATOR THROW

HOW DOES IT RATE ON THE MODERN REFRIG-RATER?

- Does it defrost automatically?
- Does it have special compartments for keeping special foods?
- Does it give you plenty of storage space but take up little floor space?
- Does it make plenty of ice cubes, fast?

TEMPERATURE TANTRUMS?

Today's refrigerators are different – completely different – from the refrigerators of just a few years ago.

Consider temperature control, for example:

Today's refrigerators maintain constant temperatures throughout – they give you the right temperature in the right place all the time. All types of foods are preserved precisely – including frozen foods.

See for yourself. Stop in your dealer's and let him show you how today's refrigerators give you even, automatic temperature control . . provide compartments for freezing . . . containers for crisping . . . give you automatic defrosting . . . give you more ice cubes faster . . . give you more storage room for less space . . . and furnish all the many necessary services for modern living.

Today – stop coddling that old, temperamental refrigerator. Find out how much easier it is to get along with an even-temperatured, new one in your home. Terms are easy.

Remember, too – you can line up lots better meals (in your home) with less lining up (in your store) when you own a home freezer more water customers, Grable pointed out.

Water Election Tuesday

"Specifically this means that the present bonded debt of the Irrigation District when divided among the existing acreage in the district amounts to $70 per acre. After the El Cajon Valley money making projects will be decided upon. Funds on hand as a result of the Swimming Pool Carnival total $2,515.00.

President Marshall said that regular meetings would be held in the future on the first Wednesday of each month.

Irrigation District lands are added and the 'island inclusions' within the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley District are annexed, the present bonded debt will amount to only $50 per acre," Grable said.

In addition to this saving, another saving of $18 per acre will result to this district because of $750,000 in water facilities which will be built by the taxpayers in the El Cajon annexation and which will serve the lands of the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation district, thus saving this district that expenditure.

Water supply for the lands to be annexed will come from the Colorado River by way of the San Diego Aqueduct, and the allocation to this district will be increased by the annexation, since it is made on a land valuation basis.

The El Cajon annexation plan is the result of several years of study by members of the board of directors of the La Mesa, Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Irrigation district, by the San Diego Water Authority and the State Engineer, as well as hydraulic engineers who have studied problems of the Irrigation District. It has the approval of all as the only practical step to take at this time.

Voters in this district will receive a second ballot Tuesday, to vote on approval of changed terms for annexing 1739 acres of "islands" scattered throughout the present district. The district board has the authority to establish such terms, but must have approval of the voters to change them.

The $454 per acre price was established by the board, but has not been paid by any acreage to date. After a study of engineers' reports on the water situation, the board voted to reduce the terms to $322, which it considers a more equitable figure under existing circumstances. The second ballot is for approval of that figure.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 7 p.m. Polling places in Lemon Grove are at 2167 El Dora St., Community Center on School Lane, and the garage at 7504 Central Ave.
